The Question of Exchanges Placed in

General Butler's Hands. General BUTLER expects that exchanges of prisoners with the authorities will be resumed but not upon the terms of the cartel, He will'exchange man for man with them, even up to the 15,000 Union prisoners they now hold, for which an equal number of Robel prisoners in our hands will be delivered

We'now hold 45,000 Robel prisoners in our possession, and will have a large urplus after all the Union prisoners have been exchanged, which will be retained. In making these exchanges our Government will insist upon the Rebels delivering up colored soldiers, and the white officers of colored regiments now in their hands, the same as between the hours of 10 o'clock A. Prudence and self-interest must force the minds of Frudence and self-interest must force the minds of those contemplating the formation of National Banking Associations, as well as the minds of all who have idle memory in their hands, to the prompt reaching a that they should loose no time for subscribing to this messar popular Loan. It will soon be beyond their reach, and minuscot on handsome premium, as was the result with the "Seven Thirty" Lean, when it was all sold and could no longer be subscribed for atpar.

It is a Six per Cent. Loan, the Interest and Principal payable in Com, thus yielding over Nine per Cent. per annum at the present rate of premium on coin.

The Government requires all duties on Importate be paid in Gold; these duties lare for a long time past amounted to over a Quarter of a Million of foliars daily, a sum nearly three times greater than that required in the payment of the interest on the 5-20's and other permanent leans. So it is hoped that the surplus Coin in the Treasury, at no distant day will enable the United States to resume specie payments upon all liabilities.

The Loans called 5-20's from the fact that whilst the bonds may run for 20 years; jet the Government has a right to pay them off in Gold at par, at any time after five years. The Int rest is Payable half-year-
